Riverside Encourages Residents to Apply for Seats on Advisory Groups

Boards and commissions have openings in Wards 3, 6 and 7

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – The City Clerk is accepting applications from residents who would like to serve on Boards and Commissions in Riverside. Openings include:

- Mayor's Commission on Aging (Ward 3 seat)
- Metropolitan Museum Board (Ward 6 seat)
- Board of Public Utilities (Ward 6 seat)

Community members appointed by the Mayor and City Council to the City's 13 boards and commissions offer guidance on important policy decisions that affect daily life in Riverside. Issues include the updates to the General Plan, design of buildings, signs, parks, recreation, trees, streets, traffic regulations, and public utilities.

Members serve four-year terms and are eligible for consideration for reappointment to an additional four-year term. The City Clerk accepts applications year-round for any of the boards and commissions.

Options include: Airport Commission, Community Police Review Commission, Commission on Disabilities, Cultural Heritage Board, Human Relations Commission, Human Resources Board, Board of Library Trustees, Mayor's Commission on Aging, Metropolitan Museum Board, Park and Recreation Commission, Planning Commission, Board of Public Utilities, and Transportation Board.

"The Mayor and City Council members rely upon the ideas and recommendations from these community volunteers to help shape public policy," said City Clerk Colleen J. Nicol. "By serving as a member of one of the boards and commissions, residents connected to neighbors and the larger community can play an important role in decisions that affect where they live and the city as a whole."

For more information and to receive an application, visit www.riversideca.gov or the City Clerk's Office on the 7th floor of City Hall, 3900 Main Street.
